The Vicar's Voice

*“Oh, for the wonderful love he has promised,
Promised for you and for me.
Though we have sinned, he as mercy and pardon,
Pardon for you and for me.
Come home, come home. You who are weary, come home.
Earnestly, Tenderly, Jesus is calling,
Calling ‘O sinner, come home.’”*

“Softly and Tenderly Jesus is Calling” by Will L. Thompson (1874-1909)

The season of Lent is often characterized by the practice of self-denial or avoidance. We give up or deny ourselves chocolate and candy, practice self-control by putting down our coffee mugs drinking water instead, or even throwing out those delicious Girl Scout cookies we’ve been hoarding all year. Some of us engaged in additional daily exercise or meditation, and increase time spent with friends and family. All of these help us build our trust and reliance on God, aid us in forming meaningful and healthy practices, and enhance our spiritual lives. However, none of these practices are what is at the heart of the Lenten season.

Lent is the time between Transfiguration Sunday, the day Jesus is revealed as divine to his disciples, and Holy Week, the seven days leading up to the resurrection of Christ on Easter Sunday. During this period of time, we are called to return to God who is gracious and merciful. Our thoughts and contemplations should be focused on remembering who God is, what miracles God has performed, and how we, as people of God, are being called to share this knowledge with the world around us. Starting with Ash Wednesday, we remember that God created us from the dust of the earth and through God’s breath, we became living creatures formed in a divine and holy image. And as people formed in God’s image, we are loved by God at all times and in all situations.

During Lent we recall how God has loved each of us so much that Jesus, God made flesh, dwelt on earth and ministered so that God’s name would be glorified. In Jesus in the human, God lives among us, knows human emotions, understands our good, bad, and our ugly. But in Jesus the divine, God takes our sinful guilt, and fulfills the promise to redeem us. Remember the love God has for us, and the remarkable lengths at which God goes to show us care and compassion. As you contemplate how that love impacts what we do and say each and every day, may you find assurance and strength through the Word.

Living Grace 2022 Annual Meeting

Sunday, February 5, 2023

Vicar Kris Roberson opened the meeting and introduced Pastor Bob Harvey, Synodical Administrator of Living Grace under the Delaware-Maryland Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of America (ELCA).

Pastor Harvey presented the meeting agenda.

Opening Prayer

Pastor Doug Jones conducted the opening prayer.

Pastor Harvey introduced the members of the Living Grace Church Council.

Mark Moser, Living Grace Treasurer

Pastor Harvey made a request for a member of Living Grace to step up and fill the position of Treasurer.

Chuck Hoffman, council secretary

Chris Barnhart

Vicar Kris Roberson

Pastor Doug Jones, former interim pastor of Living Grace, and now Vicar Roberson's supervisor

Matt Travis could not attend in person but attended on-line.

Pastor Harvey also introduced Anne Fix, who has been participating in the Episcopal Conversations as a lay member.

Approval of 2021 Annual Meeting Minutes

The 2021 Annual Meeting minutes were approved unanimously.

2022 Financial Reports

Living Grace Treasurer, Mark Moser, presented the 2022 Financial Reports for Living Grace.

The financial picture has been skewed by the $45,000 grant from the Episcopal Diocese of Maryland. These funds are designated for certain purposes. The cash method of accounting is being used, all money is counted as it comes in and as it is spent. At the end of 2022 Living Grace was $28,000 to the good, skewed by Episcopalian money and required expenses. If the Episcopalian money and expenses are removed, then Living Grace is still $5,563 to the good.

The Living Grace Balance Sheet as of 12/31/2022 shows $37,248 in the checking account and an additional $17,946 in investments. Living Grace has sufficient funds for all expenses.

In 2022, Living Grace hired Kerry Davis as Parish Administrator. She puts in about 10 to 20 hours a month.

Inspired by Jesus Christ, Living Grace strives to be a welcoming community that will love you, care for you, and serve for you.

The contribution statements for 2022 have been completed and will be put in the mail next week.

The Receipts and Disbursements for the past three years that Mark Moser has been Treasurer, were also very briefly presented to the congregation. There were no questions.

Proposed 2023 Operating Budget

Living Grace Treasurer, Mark Moser, presented the Proposed 2023 Budget to the congregations. He explained the overall organization of the document. There were no questions.

Pastor Doug Jones proposed an amendment to the 2023 Budget.

The Delaware Maryland Synod of the ELCA had offered Living Grace $4,000 for 2023, but it came with a caveat that Living Grace would tithe 10% of our income back to the Synod. With the money we are getting from the Episcopal Diocese, this would be more than the $4,000 we would be getting. In addition, we should also be tithing to the Episcopal Diocese. Because of these considerations, council decided that we should refuse the Synod grant of $4,000. After a discussion between Pastor Jones and the Synod, the Synod decided to remove the tithing condition from the $4,000 grant, allowing Living Grace to accept the grant.

Pastor Jones proposes adding the $4,000 from the Delaware Maryland Synod into the budget. He further proposed increasing the benevolence from $1,000 to $2,000 and splitting it evenly, with $1,000 going to the Delaware Maryland Synod, and $1,000 to the Episcopal Diocese of Maryland.

The amendment was approved unanimously. The proposed budget as amended was approved unanimously.

2022 Attendance Summary

Pastor Doug Jones presented the 2022 attendance report.

2022	In Person	Online	Total
Total	1402	3575	4977
Average	25	64	89

The average in-person attendance has been rising and is now in the thirties, with 40 in person attendees today. Pastor Jones also thanked the many who attend on-line, with a special thank you to Dottie, who watches the service every Sunday morning from her home in Nevada, despite the 3 hour time difference, and mails regular offering checks.

Pastor Jones also thanked Steve Silvius, who has been our web guru, seeing to it that the Living Grace web page is always up to date.

2023 Preview

Vicar Kris Roberson gave an outline of his plans and hopes for Living Grace in 2023.

A Letter Of Agreement (LOA) has been signed between the Episcopal Diocese of Maryland and Delaware-Maryland Synod of the ELCA. Vicar Roberson went on to explain that even though he had experience with Living Grace many years ago and he knew God was leading him, he needed to check the numbers when he was asked to serve Living Grace. To put Living Grace's numbers in perspective, he pointed out that established Episcopal congregations typically worship an average of 32 in person each Sunday. The growth of Living Grace is all about its members. We are a light to the world.

The LOA, which is all signed and official, stipulates our mission. We will be ramping up our activities. Lager for Lent will return. Donations to the Food Bank will continue. On-line Bible study is in the works. Vicar Roberson will be meeting with area leaders to determine the needs of the area and how Living Grace might help meet these needs.

We will get more people involved in Living Grace by serving others. We will look to the talents of our members to help. We will develop a congregation plan. There are not a lot of details yet.

Questions

Are we staying at the Y?

We have been actively looking for other options. Pastor Harvey and Pastor Jones have been in discussion with Episcopal Pastor Ken Howard of FaithX Mission Development. Exploration of worship space is a part of the Episcopal Grant.

Inspired by Jesus Christ, Living Grace strives to be a welcoming community that will love you, care for you, and serve for you.

Is there a radius to our search for a new worship space?

Yes, there are definite boundaries. We will not look too far north to avoid Evangelical Lutheran Church and All Saints Episcopal Church in downtown Frederick. To the east we have Grace Episcopal Church and some small Lutheran congregations. We also want to avoid interfering with the small congregations to our west. We will not look further south than the Frederick County line because Montgomery County is part of the Metropolitan Washington, D.C. Synod. We may still draw members from northern Montgomery County as the closest Episcopal congregation is in Germantown and the closest Lutheran congregation is in Gaithersburg.

Closing Prayer

Attendees were led in the Lord's Prayer.

A motion was made to end the meeting. This was approved unanimously.

Inspired by Jesus Christ, Living Grace strives to be a welcoming community that will love you, care for you, and serve for you.
